one. The contest will be held during the Sunday Luncheon prior to the Installation of Officers.

Another "dress-up" affair that has been added this year is the Shipwreck Party on Friday evening. The Hotel will have some props but if you want to win the prizes you had better be working on a costume. Come dressed as if you were washed ashore and were the last survivor. There will be prizes for the best costume and so fourth. The more bikinis the better.

There will be a registration fee of $1.00 per head again this year. These funds are used to help with the cost of the convention.

The Norman Reasoner Chapter has graciously taken the task of presenting the second Necrology Service. The new president, Mr. Eric Golby, tells us that it will be a good one.

CORRECTION IN HOTEL MAILING

The Landmark Hotel mailed out reservation blanks with incorrect dates on them. The Annual Membership Meeting is to be held on June 16, 17, 18th. NOT ON SATURDAY, SUNDAY AND MONDAY as the Landmark said. Change the dates on the blank when you send it in.

REASONER TROPHY GOES TO REASONER CHAPTER

The Norman Reasoner Chapter nosed out the Halifax Chapter by just six amateur entrants to take the Reasoner Trophy home this past show season.

The fight was touch and go along the way. Gulfcoast and Ridge Chapter were tied for fourth place. Indian River beat them by only one entrant to take third and Halifax took second place with six more entrants than the third place spot.

How about you other chapters getting in the swing of things and working for the Reasoner Trophy this year? The trophy is awarded to the chapter with the most amateur entrants in their show.
